Winston-Salem State University

601 MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DRIVE
WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA 27110

Office of the Chancellor

(910) 750-2041

1997-1998

Dear Students:

On behalf of our faculty, staff and students, we hope you will enjoy the 1998 Ram, your family album of some of the most memorable times of your life. Treasure it as a personal snapshot of your college years, the life long friends you made, that special professor who guided you toward success, and the maturity you gained in the process. Captured on these pages are the days that will shape your future.

For some, this year's edition is the bridge that will connect your undergraduate experiences with your new role and responsibility as an alumnus of Winston-Salem State University. The social, intellectual and emotional growth you have experienced here are a strong foundation for the challenges and opportunities that await you.

For others, the 1998 Ram continues your collegiate career and leads you toward the next stages of your academic, personal, and professional endeavors.

I offer best wishes for the happiest and warmest recollection of your days at WSSU. As you view these pages in years to come, and recall the memories associated with them, please be reminded that these were the times that bound you forever to Winston-Salem State University. No matter where you are, you will never be far from your home here.

The above paragraphs reflect my sentiments for you at the end of my second academic year as your Chancellor. My commitment to Winston-Salem State University remains steadfast. For those of you graduating, I offer best wishes for success and urge you to become involved in your local alumni chapter. For those of you returning next year, I look forward seeing you on campus.

Sincerely,

Alvin J. Schexnider

History of the Class of 1998 Winston-Salem State University

We entered Winston-Salem State University in the fall of 1994 to learn, with positive attitudes toward our future. As a class we abided by the class motto of "Knowledge is the Key to Opportunity". We proudly elected Karen Taylor as Class President. Her administration consisted of: Sekina Arnold, Vice-President; Mechelle Foster, Responding Secretary; Shenetta Johnson, Corresponding Secretary; Melinda Foster, Treasurer; and Terrance White, Parliamentarian. Other elected officers were Darius Lewis, Historian; Vander Spruill, Chaplain; and Sharron Kelly, Class Queen. Nekecha Pellam, Jamar Caldwell, Kerry Huff, and April Hill served as class representatives. We chose blue and white as our class colors and Mr. Michael Harpe accepted the invitation of becoming our class adviser.

The class of 1998 was a breath of fresh air for Winston-Salem State University because of the new ideas that we brought to the institution. During our first year we hosted several dynamic events that reflected our interest in learning. We hosted the first diversified Front Conference for the freshman classes of the eleven Historically Black Colleges and Universities. The Homecoming show featured Blackstreet, Craig Mack, and comedian D.L. Hughley.

Our second year included the election of Karen Taylor as Class President for a second time. Nakia Best, Vice President; Mechelle Foster, Treasurer; Guan Carey, Chaplain; April Hill, Historian; Latimethus Powell, Parliamentarian and Sharron Kelly, Class Queen completed the cabinet. Class representatives were Tenelle Gardner, LaToya Stevenson, Deneen Dixon and Shelia Mitchell. We hosted activities such as "Sophomores and Freshmen Sticking Together Like Crazy Glue", a party with the Junkyard Band featuring D.J. Spunk, a Twister contest, a Gospel Fest, a Halloween bash with the Best Choice Center and an Administrative Tea. We also took part in a Santagram sale and a Big Brother and Big Sister community project. We represented Winston-Salem State University at Black College Day in Raleigh, NC. The Homecoming show featured the sounds of Soul For Real, Grand Puba, and comedian Talent.

In our third year at Winston-Salem State University we were under the new leadership of LaToya Stevenson. She was accompanied by Sharron Kelly, Vice-President; Mechelle Foster, Recording Secretary; Melinda Foster, Treasurer; Shelia Mitchell, Class Representative; Latimethus Powell, Parliamentarian; April Hill, Historian and Deneen Dixon, Class Queen. We hosted such events as a Gospelfest, "A Higher Dream" program, and a Mocktale Cabaret Kareoke Night. The Homecoming show featured a Tribe Called Quest, the Lost Boys, and comedian Arnez J.

For our fourth and final year at Winston-Salem State University we elected Latoya Stevenson as Class President for a second time. She was accompanied by Deana Godfrey, Vice-President; Jackie McAdoo, Recording Secretary; Shelia Mitchell, Corresponding Secretary; Lareal Haskins, Treasurer; Erin White, Parliamentarian; Kalissia Bennett, Chaplain; Shemeka Lee, Historian; and Alexandria Graves, Class Queen. Class representatives are Tafoya Hubbard, Nicole McNeil, Jerry Trevathan, and Latimethus Powell. Ms. Phronice Johnson became our class adviser due to the relocation of Michael Harpe.

Now that we have approached the finish line we can reflect on all of the memories, friends, and experiences we have had. With these occurrences we can depart to serve our communities and the world in commemoration of our time here at Winston-Salem State University. Over the past four years we have observed the inauguration of Chancellor Alvin J. Schexnider and the dedication and opening of the Cleon F. Thompson, Jr. Student Services Center. Unfortunately we witnessed the demolition of two historical buildings on our campus. These were Bickett Hall which served as the first black hospital in Winston-Salem and Kennedy Dining Hall. In addition we mourned the tragic deaths of rappers Tupac Shakur and Christopher "Notorious Big" Wallace, Princess Diana, and Dr. Betty Shabazz, not to mention the passing away of Mother Theresa. We were fortunate to be enlightened through powerful lectures by Susan Taylor, Rae Lewis-Thornton, Louis Farrakhan, Ashra Kwesi and Dr. Julius L. Chambers. We were also given the opportunity to make history in the Million Man March in 1995 and the Million Woman March in 1997.

We the class of 1998 have accepted the challenge from our founder and the previous classes by upholding the spirit of Winston-Salem State University.

THE BEST IN THE CIAA!

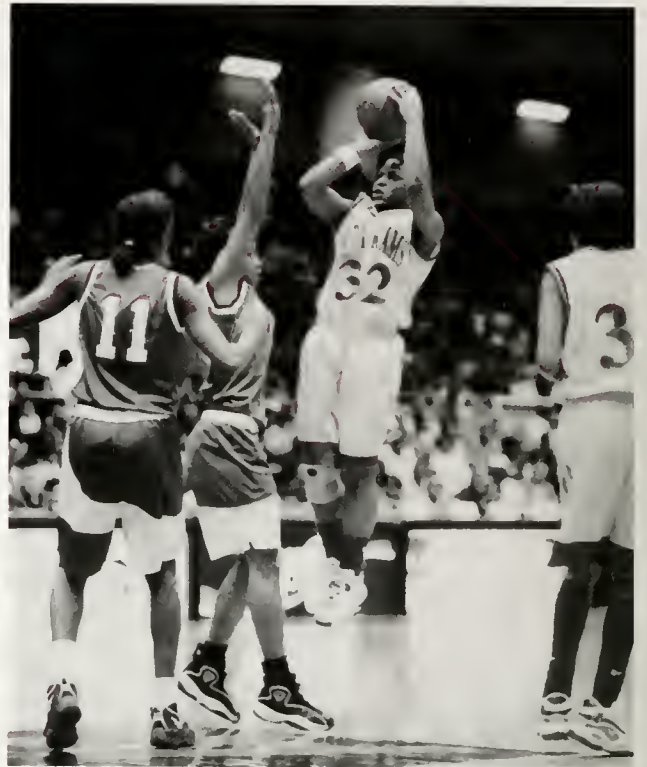

THE 53rd ANNUAL CIAA TOURNAMENT

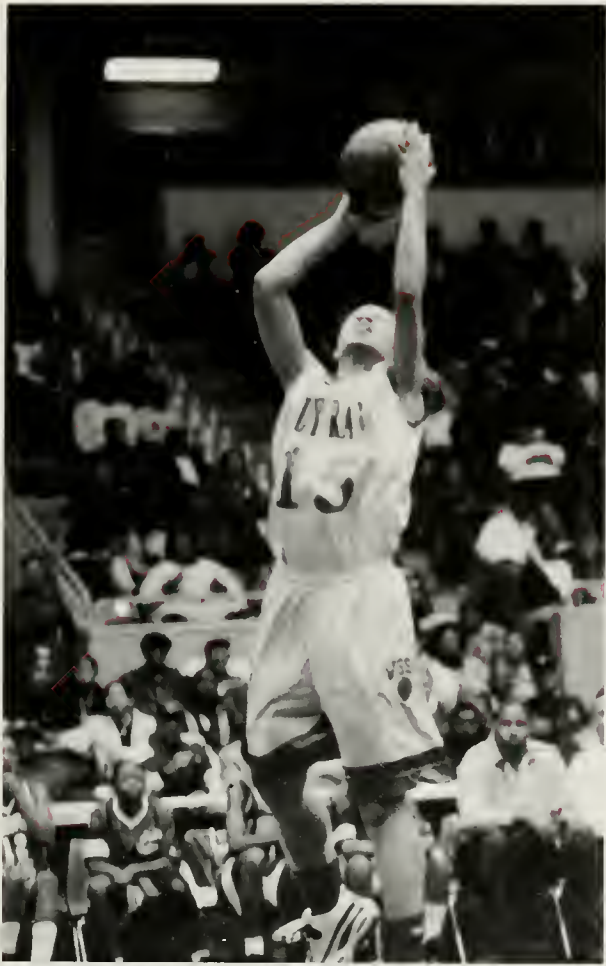

The Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) was founded in 1912 as the Colored Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The oldest Black Athletic Conference in the nation, the CIAA is also one of the largest Division II Conferences in the NCAA.

Since the first tournament in 1946, the CIAA has continued to grow to hold the third largest basketball tournament in terms of attendance in the country.

THANK YOU!

Often, in the midst of trouble, when we are faced with obstacles that we think are too difficult to overcome, we simply give up. It takes a dedicated person to step in, the midst of that trouble, to lend their talents and guidance to see us through until the end.

The 1997-1998 RAM staff would like to offer our unending gratitude to Mr. Harden Richards, who became that person when he agreed to take on the task of becoming the RAM yearbook adviser/coordinator in the middle of this academic year.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the Herff Jones yearbook representative Ms. Jo Lewis. Her unselfish efforts made this yearbook possible.

And so, our hats are off to Mr. Richards and Ms. Lewis for all that they have done.

The RAM Staff

"AND NOW,
A WORD FROM OUR SPONSORS"...

The sun has yet to set on the struggle for freedom.

A message from Benjamin S. Ruffin,

*Vice President - Corporate Affairs,
R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company*

*Ben Ruffin with recipients of NAACP
C.E. "Chuck" Lewis Scholarship.*

When we reflect on those who've paid the ultimate price for freedom and the progress we've achieved because of their sacrifices, it's easy to think that the struggle for freedom is over.

But every morning we're reminded that freedom is not solidly within our grasp. And the struggle begins again.

Day after day, relentlessly, we must keep freedom in the forefront of our minds. Freedom for our families. Freedom for the next generation. Freedom in the workplace.

Here, at R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, we salute men and women like you ... the torchbearers who are continuing to struggle for freedom today.

As a leader at R.J. Reynolds, I am proud that our company supports:

Families ... by providing jobs with an average salary of $45,000 per year.

Minority Businesses ... through our minority purchasing programs and our efforts to provide opportunities for all businesspersons to conduct business with our company.

Diversity ... by our commitment to the principles of affirmative action throughout our entire organization.

Communities ... by supporting, for the past 25 years, more than 100 minority organizations and programs that are committed to building and restoring communities and providing educational opportunities for our youth.

Celebrations of Freedom ... by honoring those who devote their lives to the cause of freedom. That's why we observe Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday as one of our paid holidays.

As we all continue to pursue freedom, examples like these give us hope and encouragement that, one day, freedom may very well be ours.

Once this man dreamed of going to college.
Today he finally made it.

For more than fifty years, The College Fund has helped thousands of young men and women achieve goals their grandparents could only dream of. We are proud to have made a critical difference in the lives of so many. But our job is not done. With your help, we will continue to bring many more dreams within reach.

Carl,

As we look back over the years and all the joys and love you have given us, recalling precious moments that belong to us alone we have loved and applauded you, each and every one of your accomplishments. You have made us very proud and truly blessed to have you as our son, we love you we are proud of you. Carl as you walk down life's highway there will be a sign that will read "To be successful" you will need to get some patience, love, understanding, wisdom, faith, strength, salvation, and prayer will keep you free and focused on the ultimate goals, giving and helping others as you were helped. Carl I just believe you will one day be the CEO of Michael Jordan Inc. You made us very happy parents. Remember what I have always asked of you that is to become the man you want to be, make the dreams come true.

God bless and keep you always,
Dad and Mom, Charles and Rlossie Loury

Daddy,

You did it, now we can be together forever. I love you and I am proud to be your son.

Love you much,
Carl E. Loury, Jr.
